Real World Linux 2004 Conference and Expo, April 13-15

Real World Linux 2004 Conference and Expo, April 13-15, 2004 at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre is the key event in Canada exclusively dedicated to Linux and Open Source Applications, Solutions and Hardware for Management and Technology professionals in enterprise, telecommunications, manufacturing, education, financial, SMB, government agencies, life sciences - - virtually all sectors. Computer technology is an integral part of the infrastructure in every business today. IT professionals and management are critically aware of the high costs of implementation, maintenance, upgrades and annual licensing fees. Today, Linux and Open Source systems offer a low cost viable alternative.
